

First fiddle

THERE'S no playing second fiddle in the Kocibellis' Braybrook household when this father and son duo bare their bows.

Vladimir and Hennis Kocibelli are both so talented at fiddling the fiddle that it's hard to tell them apart. The difference is that Vladimir is already well-known in music circles while his son, who came to Australia six months ago, is just starting out.

People can see, and hear, Hennis shine in a special concert at the Footscray Community Arts centre in Moreland St this Sunday (April 20) at 2pm. Young cellist Jo-Ann Foudyt and pianist Susanna Saw will also perform.

Tickets cost $8 adults, $6 concession or $3 children. Afternoon tea is included. Inquiries: 9689 5677.

Picture: CAMERON TANDY

Anger at trader fee

Wizard bid to save